
1812
ARGENTINA RULES

It was in 1812, two years after the May Revolution, that Manuel Belgrano created the Argentine flag.
Only the author of the Book knows the true history of its conception...

OBJECTIVE

This is in co-operative with the AUTHOR that the READERS will attempt to guess the Secret Code found in the book, before the opportunities run out.

2 - 7 PLAYERS · 15-20 MINUTES · AGE +8

ROLES

AUTHOR: The AUTHOR will try, without being able to speak, to make the READERS discover the secret code.
It is by judiciously choosing the AUTHOR CARDS that they will be related to the READER CARDS that indicate the secret code.

READERS: they will try to collectively interpret the AUTHOR CARDS sent by the AUTHOR. Then they should tell the AUTHOR the code obtained.

RESPONSABLE: Before starting the game, the PLAYERS will choose a RESPONSABLE for each row (Characters, Situations, Places, Food). In case of disagreement between the READERS on the choice of a READER CARD, it is the RESPONSABLE who will have the last word!

DISTRIBUTION OF ROLES

PLAYERS	2	3	4	5	6	7
AUTHOR	1	1	1	1	1	2
READERS	1	2	3	4	5	5
RESPONSABLES	1	2	3	4	4	4

NOTE: if there are more than 7 people who wish to play, the distribution of roles is free.

DIFFICULTY LEVELS

DIFFICULTY	FACILE NIVEAU 1	NIVEAU 2	NIVEAU 3	NIVEA 4	DIFFICILE NIVEAU 5
COLUMNS	5	5	6	6	6
FLAG	YES	YES	YES	YES	NOT
NUMBER OF TURNS	5	4	4	4	3

SETTING UP

1) Assign the roles of AUTHOR and READERS according to the Role Distribution table and choose the REFERENTS. For the first game, it's better to leave the role of the AUTHOR to the more experienced player.
2) According to the Difficulty Levels table, organize the required number of columns and designate them with the COLUMN Tokens placed in ascending order.
3) Shuffle the CHARACTER READER CARDS, SITUATION READER CARDS, PLACES READER CARDS and FOOD READER CARDS. Depending on the Difficulty Level chosen, then place 4 Rows of 5 or 6 cards face up (one for each type of READER CARDS), placing them under the COLUMN Index Tokens. Put any unused cards aside, they will not be used in this game.
4) THE AUTHOR places the open game box vertically in front of him like a book and hides its contents from READERS.
5) THE AUTHOR places the FLAG above the book (if the chosen level of play allows it).
6) THE AUTHOR places the 4 AUTHOR DICE, AUTHOR CARDS and ENVELOPES behind the box.

Example Setup for Difficulty Level 3.

PLAYING THE GAME

1) Each RESPONSABLE takes the READER TOKEN from the rows for which he will have the last word.

 CHARACTER  SITUTATION  PLACE  FOOD

2) Hidden from the view of the READERS behind his Book, the AUTHOR rolls the 4 AUTHOR DICE (Character, Situation, Place, Food).
Then he places them inside the Book, thus generating the Secret Code. The color designates the row and the number the column of the READER CARD that READERS must guess.

ACCURACY: DEPENDING ON THE CHOOSED LEVEL OF DIFFICULTY, THE NUMBER OF COLUMNS MAY BE 5. RETRIEVING THE DICE CONTAINING THE NUMBER 6.

EXAMPLE:

-The secret code is 2 4 3 1.
(The color refers to the row and the number the column).
-The blue dice refers to the ROW characters and the number 2 the COLUMN II.

3) The AUTHOR locates the READER CARDS to be guessed. He take the first 6 AUTHOR CARDS from his deck.

4) The AUTHOR must find the relationship between his 6 AUTHOR CARDS with the 4 READER CARDS indicated by the secret code.
Once he has chosen the 4 AUTHOR CARDS, the AUTHOR places these cards face up to the right of the corresponding row. (Place the 4 AUTHOR CARDS at the same time).

EXAMPLE:

5) READERS must now discuss and come to an agreement before placing READER PAWN (Character, Situation, Place, Food) on the READER CARDS they hope to have recognized.
As a reminder, in the event of disagreement, it is the RESPONABLE who places the READER PAWN according to his interpretation.

EXAMPLE:

* 7) THE AUTHOR places the ENVELOPE corresponding to the number of correct digits AND well placed according to the

6) The READERS finally announce the Code obtained (the number of the COLUMN of the card chosen for each ROW. Characters, Situations, Places, Food).

7) * THE AUTHOR checks the code that READERS have said with the secret code and places the ENVELOPE corresponding to the number of correct digits, at the top of the COLUMN of AUTHOR CARDS issued.
NOTE: THE ENVELOPES DO NOT INDICATE THE WRONG OR THE CORRECT CARDS.

EXAMPLE: READERS SAY CODE 2251, THE AUTHOR DELIVERED THE ENVELOPE WITH 2 TILES BECAUSE ONLY THE "2" CHARACTERS AND "1" OF FOOD ARE RIGHT.

8) If the READERS have not yet found the Secret Code, the AUTHOR draws and completes his hand with 6 AUTHOR CARDS.
Continue the game starting from point 4.
The AUTHOR places the 4 AUTHOR CARDS to the right of the previous ones, even in the rows guessed by the readers.

NOTE: AT THE START OF EACH NEW TURN, THE AUTHOR MUST HAVE 6 AUTHOR CARDS IN HAND.

END OF GAME

All players win the game if the READERS find the Secret Code before the end of the last turn.

The AUTHOR will then be able to tell the true story of the creation of the Argentinian flag by being inspired by the Character, the Situation, the Place and the Specialty food designated by the Secret Code.

The Game is lost if the Secret Code is not found until the end of the last round.

FLAG

If the chosen Difficulty Level indicates it (see page II), the FLAG was placed on the Book at the beginningof the game.
At any time during the game and only once, the AUTHOR can use the FLAG to discard all or part of his cards and take same amount.

NOTE: THE AUTHOR announces to READERS that he is using the FLAG by singing a verse from his country's National Anthem, then he replaces the FLAG inside the box.

ADVICE

The AUTHOR can complete his hand as soon as he has placed his 4 AUTHOR CARDS on the table and start to think the next turn.

IMPORTANT

The AUTHOR can only communicate with READERS using AUTHOR CARDS.
He cannot speak, or use gestures or any other means of communication! He also can't tell which reader cards are right.

THANKS!!
GRACIAS!

We thank our friend Patricio Brown for his historical advice on the game and Facu for the wonderful illustrations.
Thank you to everyone who tested 1812 Argentina, above all to family and friends.
Thank you also to the MHB handball teammates and to the Lud'm Montpellier boutique.

HISTOIRE DU JEU

After spending a whole summer playing board games with friends, I came up with the idea to create "1812 Argentina" ...

I wanted to immerse the players behind the scenes of the creation of the Argentine flag. I am convinced that a modern gaming culture can continue to grow and that a game inspired by the country's history is an asset to awaken the desire to play, with colleagues, family and friends!

Highlighting illustrious people, notable places, memorable events, as well as typical culinary specialties, it is also an opportunity to shed light on the history of Argentina and pass on some knowledge while playing the game.

Therefore, each card illuminates the illustration with a short text and provides the opportunity to awaken interest in our history and share the roots of our culture.

I wish 1812 could become the game that all Argentines want to have at home as well as in schools.
